Il y a bien longtemps

Il était une fois un grand château. Avec de vaillants chevaliers, des chevaux, des rois, des reines et des tournois. Et beaucoup d'aventures, chaque jour.

C'est ainsi que commençait la description de l'emblématique set 375 Le château dans le catalogue de produits LEGO®, lors de son lancement en 1978. Souvent appelé le « château jaune » ou le « château original », il a marqué le début d'une fantastique aventure médiévale, qui s'est poursuivie jusqu'en 1999. Dans le cadre des célébrations du 90^e anniversaire de LEGO, nous avons choisi de rendre hommage à ce thème populaire avec le nouveau château des Chevaliers du lion, inspiré du set classique 6080 Le château du roi, lancé en 1984.

375 Le château

Le château original avec lequel tout a commencé ! Les murs jaune vif de ce château étaient articulés pour permettre de créer de multiples configurations et d'accéder facilement à l'intérieur. Bien que le jaune ait été rapidement abandonné au profit d'un gris plus réaliste, la conception des murs à charnières est toujours présente dans les châteaux LEGO aujourd'hui.

Parmi les curiosités de ce modèle se trouvent les chevaux en briques et le casque spatial classique muni d'une nouvelle visière, qui fait office de casque pour les chevaliers.

6066 Avant-poste camouflé

La cachette secrète originale des hommes de la forêt ! Un vieux chêne enlace ses racines autour d'un rocher géant, mais ce lieu recèle bien des surprises ! Une porte secrète rotative en pierre permet d'accéder à la grotte des hommes de la forêt, et le panneau arrière à charnières s'ouvre pour révéler l'espace de jeu à l'intérieur. Ce set comprend 6 hommes de la forêt différents, dont leur chef énigmatique.

1992

6086 Le château du chevalier noir

Le summum des châteaux classiques ! Cette impressionnante forteresse est construite sur une plaque de base surélevée, laissant place à un cachot sous la cour. Le château perpétue la tradition en incluant un pont-levis et une herse fonctionnels, et il contient également une porte arrière secrète pour les évasions rapides ou les excursions nocturnes. Le château du Chevalier noir hébergeait 4 chevaliers en armure à cheval, 6 soldats, un bandit de la bandes des loups et même un fantôme !

10193 Le village médiéval

Le village médiéval est l'un des rares sets à montrer la vie au-delà des murs du château. Il comprend deux bâtiments à colombages magnifiquement détaillés, une roue à eau pour alimenter le marteau-pilon de la forge, des soldats, des écuries, une charrette tirée par des chevaux et même deux vaches !

Un château classique d'un nouveau genre

C'est toujours un défi de réinventer un thème LEGO® si apprécié, mais notre nouveau château des Chevaliers du lion associe une construction LEGO de plus grande complexité à l'esprit des sets originaux, comme Le château du roi (6080), pour créer un modèle riche en caractéristiques et fonctions amusantes.

Nous avons commencé par placer la tour principale au sommet d'une grande formation rocheuse LEGO, afin que le modèle semble plus grand. Cela nous a également permis d'inclure des pièces cachées et des cachots sombres sous le château. Les murs sont mobiles, et le modèle peut être divisé pour mieux accéder au château et révéler une multitude de trappes, de passages secrets et de cachettes.

Cette nouvelle interprétation du château classique tire parti des techniques de construction modernes et présente de nombreuses caractéristiques qui rendent hommage aux sets de château originaux.

À l'occasion du 90^e anniversaire de LEGO en 2022, nous avons demandé aux fans de voter pour les thèmes LEGO classiques qu'ils souhaitaient voir renaître dans un set spécial. Des dizaines de milliers de fans ont participé au sondage et le thème Château classique a été l'un des grands gagnants !

90 years of play

LEGO YELLOW CASTLE, 1978

Les mots de l'équipe de design

Lorsqu'ils étaient enfants, le thème Château faisait toujours partie de ceux qu'ils préféraient. Les designers LEGO® Mike Psiaki et Milan Madge ont donc toujours rêvé de travailler ensemble sur un grand set de château LEGO. Mike décrit l'évolution du modèle :

Ce modèle a été élu lors d'un vote qui s'est déroulé dans le cadre des célébrations du 90^e anniversaire de LEGO en 2022. Nous avons essayé de fusionner un grand nombre de sets du passé sur le thème des châteaux pour créer le modèle ultime. Nous avons revisité à plusieurs reprises la forme globale et la taille du château. Nous avons commencé à construire de petites sections de murs, des portes en colombage et des ponts-levis, en jouant avec différentes fonctions et styles pour tenter d'obtenir le modèle idéal. Au début du projet, Milan a découvert un type de pont-levis qui utilisait un contrepoids à l'arrière du pont au lieu des chaînes traditionnelles reliées à l'avant du pont. Nous avons immédiatement su que nous voulions intégrer cet élément dans le château, mais ce n'est que très tard qu'il est devenu l'entrée principale.

Le graphiste LEGO Ashwin Visser a ensuite joué un rôle central dans la réalisation de nombreuses petites touches cruciales qui complètent le set. Nous avons notamment retravaillé le graphisme des Chevaliers du lion, créé de nouveaux drapeaux et boucliers pour les murs et les remparts du château, et introduit l'élément de caparaçon (housse revêtue par les chevaux) bleu et rouge pour les deux chevaux. Pour finir, nous avons conçu une nouvelle cape et un nouveau bouclier pour la dame du château.

Repérez la différence

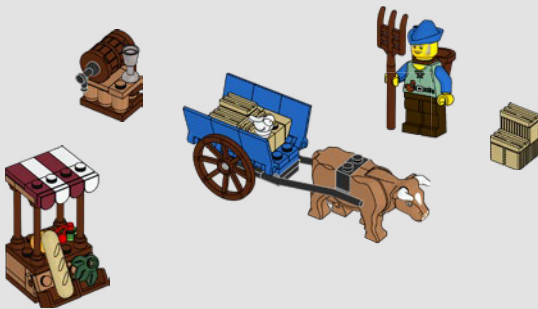

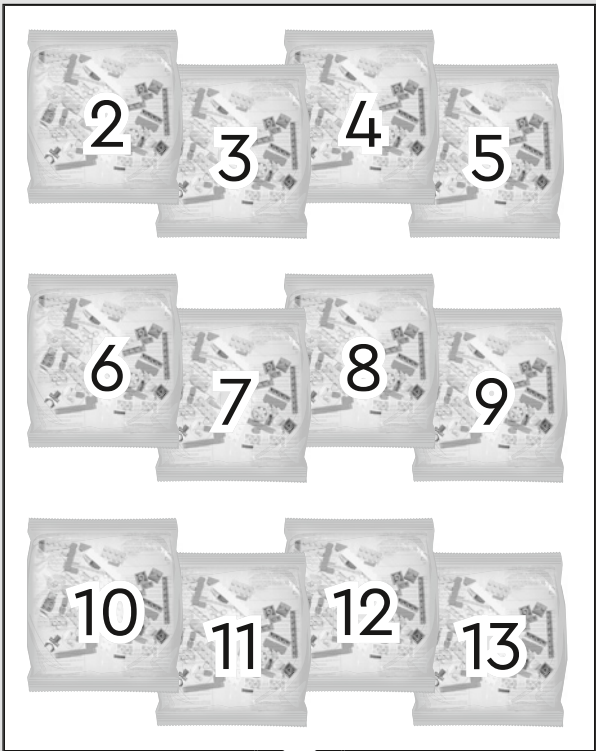

Nous avons décidé de transformer les Chevaliers du lion LEGO classiques pour faire en sorte qu'ils s'accordent avec les nouveaux Chevaliers du Faucon Noir, qui sont apparus dans le set médiéval 21325 Le forgeron. Cela a été un véritable défi de recréer le nouveau logo des Chevaliers du lion, car celui-ci se devait d'être une nouvelle version reconnaissable du logo emblématique que les fans affectionnent.
